Painting Our Prayers with Cheryl Judd-Magee

Life seems to have gotten so big, with challenges coming at us from every direction. There are the big occurrences; the daily impact of climate change in the form of droughts, fires, storms, and floods; the reports of the war in the Ukraine and continued nuclear threat; the series of pandemic threats; and the challenges of an uncertain job environment, political climate, and economy, locally and world-wide. Add to this, personal crises, deaths and obstacles, and the task of facing daily life has become more exhausting. We are taught that God is there to sustain and revive us, but how can we get to the core of experiencing this Grace and Hope? Some do so through daily Bible study, attending regular Worship, participating in Taizé services, taking hikes in nature, or ongoing prayer.

This class will be a unique opportunity to participate in the process of prayer, through painting and exploring the struggle and grace that comes through making art together. After the initial two classes in November, which will serve as an introduction to the medium of painting, the class will meet monthly on the second Monday of the month. All supplies will be provided and participants can attend when they are able. The cost of the class is $15 a session to cover cost of supplies, and each session is held 6:30-8:30 PM in the Art Room at Avondale Presbyterian Church, 2821 Park Rd, 28209. Please contact Cheryl before you come to the first class!

Planned classes: Nov 7, Nov 21, Dec 12, Jan 9, Feb 15, Mar 13, Apr 10

ABOUT CHERYL JUDD-MAGEE
