About the Weekend

Time After Time

Our lives have changed over the past few years. Events out of our control have touched every aspect of life. It is time to look for hope and healing.

God works in our lives through trouble and hardship as well as joy and peace. During the weekend sessions Carolina will lead us in exploring where God has moved in your life, when you sensed his strength and love, when you trusted his guidance. Join us as we reflect on our lives and look to the future with a perspective of hope and healing, realizing God has been there.... Time After Time.

LEADERSHIP

Caroline East will be leading us again! Carolina lead the last retreat held in March 2020, right before the pandemic caused the world to lock down. She was with the women of the church as the world changed.

Caroline is an enthusiastic leader who loves to make the stories of scripture engaging and relatable. She loves being outdoors, spending time with close friends, and sipping jalapeño margaritas. She's recently returned to her home town of Charlotte to serve as the Chaplain at Sharon Towers, the Presbyterian retirement community. Caroline has previously served congregations in North and South Carolina.

MUSIC

Elizabeth Bridges and Molly James will be joining us again to lead the music for the weekend. Many of you will remember what a wonderful musical gift they share.
